While I am not 1 nature an unreasonable or biased person, two 2 and striking personal experiences of rock music 3 the past two weeks have persuaded me that it has become a duty for those of us with enough common 4 to see its potential dangers to point them out. My first experience - perhaps a 5 one, but highly symptomatic - was the realization that if I spoke to my teenage son when he was listening to rock music through headphones, he replied in an 6 loud voice, as if there was something wrong with his 7 . The second occurred when I went with him to a concert and witnessed for 8 what these affairs are like. Till I went to that concert, my first and assuredly my last, had always 9 the live-and-let-live attitude that rock music was simply not my 10 but that other people had every right to enjoy it if it was 11 . But what I saw and heard convinced me that we are allowing something very powerful to take 12 of the younger generation. In the first place, I noticed 13 collective madness, brought about by the noise 14 . But secondly, and far more dangerously, I observed that after a time everyone was carried 15 by the noise, and gave up hisher individuality. 16 the end I was in the middle of a faceless 17 who clapped and stamped and jumped around like monkeys. It was the most degrading human spectacle I have ever had the 18 to witness, and I seriously believe that 19 our present younger generation would thank us if we managed to put 20
