gathered here today in the sight of God, and in the face of this company, to join together (Groom ' s Name) and (Bride ' s Name) in holy matrimony. which is an honorable estate, instituted of God, since the first man and the first woman walked on the earth.

Therefore. it is not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently and soberly. Into this holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. If any one can show just cause why they may not be lawfully joined together, let them speak now or forever hold their peace. Who gives this woman to be married to this man?

Father: My wife and I do. (Then the bride is given away) Minister: I require and charge you both that if either of you know any impediment why you may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, you confess it now. For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one. Reader 3: A reading from the Apostle Paul, the first letter to the Corinthians, chapter 13, verses 4 through 7: Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Minister: Let us pray for this man and woman as they make their marriage vows. Father, as (Groom ' s Name) and (Bride ' s Name) have chosen each other, help them and bless them that their love may be pure, and their vows may be true. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen. (Minister: addressing the groom who repeats the marriage vows): I (Groom ' s Name) take thee (Bride ' s Name) to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, honor, and cherish, ' til death do us part, according to God ' s holy ordinance. and thereto I plight thee my troth. (Minister: then to the bride who repeats the marriage vows): I (Bride ' s Name) take thee (Groom ' s Name) to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, honor, and cherish, ' til death do us part, according to God ' s holy ordinance. and thereto I plight thee my
