Dear President, November 11, 1999
I'm very happy to hear that a famous author has donated considerable money to our institute. And I think we could use it to establish an education fund to aid our teachers to study abroad. Firstly, teachers could increase their teaching level and enrich their knowledge by studying abroad. For teachers of a language institute, this kind of experience is really necessary. Teachers would consider that as a kind of prize and therefore work harder for that. Secondly, our institute could be benefited from doing that. Since we could provide the overseas-studying chance for our teachers, graduates with high score in the Normal Colleges are more willing to come to our institute. Thirdly, that will help our students. Our last year's survey showed that 65% of our students prefer the language teachers who had overseas-studying experience. In a word, I think that using the donated fund to assist our teachers to study abroad is a good way to promote the healthy development of our institute. Please take good consideration of my advice. Thanks!
Yours sincerely, Livia Liu
