1. Imaginative works such as novels , plays , films , fairytales , and legends present a more accurate and meaningful picture of human experience than do factual accounts. Because the creators of fiction shape and focus on reality rather than report it literally , their creations have a more lasting significance.
2. The arts (painting , music , literature , etc.) reveal the otherwise hidden ideas and impulses of a society.
3. It is the artist , not the critic , who gives society something of lasting value. A person who evaluates works of art , such as novels , films music , paintings , etc.
4. As long as people in a society are hungry or out of work or lack the basic skills needed to survive , the use of public resources to support the arts is inappropriate-and , perhaps , even cruel-when one considers all the potential uses of such money.
5. In order for any work of art-whether film , literature , sculpture , or a song-to have merit , it must be understandable to most people.
